

Haas Wins Davis Memorial Lockwood Medals

Corey Haas of Wellsville Country Club won the Davis Memorial Cup as the most outstanding golfer for the 2011 Penn-York golf season. Haas averaged 75 for the best four out of five rounds. Corey also took top honors in Division I with 34.5 points edging Pine Acres' Josh Stauffer who finished second with 30.

Division II overall champion was Wilson Lockwood of Moonbrook Country Club as Caleb Edwards of Bartlett finished second with 34.

Mitchell Faulkner of Pine Acres won Division III with 44.5 points followed by Dylan LaBarbera of Bemus Point with 34.

It came down to the last day in Division IV as Andrew Wagner of Erie took top honors with 47 points winning by one over Christo Park of Kane. Despite the overall loss Park persevered with a first place at Bartlett having finished second in the previous four events.

Madison Forrest of St. Bona received the first annual Kevin Forrest Memorial Trophy for qualities exemplified on the golf course by the late Kevin Forrest, past director of Penn-York Junior Golf.
