

Penn-York Action June 28, 2010

Elkdale Country Club

Zach Hyman (Holland Hills) carded 37-36-73 to claim medalist honors and the Division I trophy at Elkdale Country Club Monday at Salamanca. In opening day Penn-York Junior Golf action Zach credited his driving accuracy and distance for the victory stating "I hit the ball long and straight all day". Indeed he did flying in on the par 4 292 yard second hole for one of his 4 birdies. A close second to Zach was his good friend Dylan Gethicker who fired a round of 75.

In Division II (14 to 15 years old) Corey Haas (Wellsville CC) continued his winning ways with a round of 76. Corey is a standout on the Cuba Central High School golf team and the returning overall champion in Division II. Dillon Stiles (Holland Hills) was second with a 78.

In Division III (12 to 13 years) two 12 year olds dueled it out with Nolan Ditcher edging out Zachary Chaddock (Springville) by one with rounds of 36 and 37. The two distanced themselves from the field as no other player in Division III was able to crack the 40 barrier.

Noan Patrick (St. Bonaventure) earned his first victory winning by a whopping 8 shots playing the back 9 from modified tees. Noah shot a 42 with second place honors going to Luke Rogers with a round of 50.

In the girls Division I (14 - 18 years old) Kate Colella won the 5th straight time with a 99 with second place going to Zoe Hawkins with a 113. Rounding out the action was Division III winner Kina Logue with a 69 followed by Allison Forness with a 72. In Division IV Marissa DelMonaco (Elkdale CC) won with a 51 with Maddy Forrest (St. Bonaventure) finishing strong at 57. The Penn-York next plays July 12th at the Pennhills Club in Bradford, PA.
