

Stauffer Sweeps Penn-York

Josh Stauffer (Pine Acres) swept all three titles at Wellsville Country Club Monday the final stop of the Penn-York Junior Golf League this year. Despite 3 putting 15 and doubling 16, Josh managed to post a stellar even par round of 71. This earned Josh first place in Division I (16 – 18) for the Wellsville competition and helped secure his title as Overall Division I Champion with 40 total points. Josh was also awarded the Davis Memorial Trophy for Most Outstanding Golfer with a season scoring average of 71.75. In only his second Penn-York outing this season, Scott Brady (Bartlett) took second in Division I with an 80. In another sweep Girls Division I (14 – 18) 14 year old Kate Colella (Pine Acres) won for the 5th time this year with 92.

Just two other golfers were able to break 80 on Monday. Division II (14 – 15) winner, Zach Chaddock (Springville) posted a 75 and Corey Haas playing at his home course carded a 78. Corey was named Overall Division II Champion for the second year in a row with 45 total points.

In Division III (12-13) Nolan Ditcher (Cardinal Hills) won with a 40 while he also took the title of Overall Division III Champion with 48 total points. Taking second at Wellsville with a 41 was Paul Etchepare (Emporium). Taking Division III Girls honors was Erin Pecora (Pennhills) with a 58.

Penn-York's youngest golfers in Division IV Modified (11 and under) proved to be some of the toughest competitors at Wellsville. Going into Monday's competition, Cameron Eddy (Elkdale), Trenton Strawdermann (Coudersport) and Noah Patrick (St. Bonas) were all vying for Overall Division IV Champion honors. Noah was only 1 point behind the two leaders even though he had missed one event. Coming down 18, Trenton chipped in for a 42 and Cameron holed his long putt for a 42. Noah 4 putted on 18 to put him out of contention with a 44. Luke Rogers (Bartlett) also posted a 42. In the sudden death playoff Luke took first and Trenton came away with second. Trenton's second place finish was enough to secure him the title of Overall Division IV Champion with 39 total points. Heather Haas (Wellsville) took first place in the Girls Division IV with a 49.

Ten outstanding Penn-York golfers were awarded invitations to the Southwestern New York-Northwest Pennsylvania Golf Amateur to be held at Bartlett Country Club August 4th – 8th. Chris Mackey (Pine Acres), Scott Brady (Bartlett), Marcus Aiello (Barlett), Zach Hyman (Holland Hills), Dylan Gethicker (Holland Hills), Wil Bathurst (Bartlett), Eric Morton (Bartlett), Corey Haas (Wellsville), Drew Chaddock (Springville), and Dillon Stiles (Holland Hills) will all be representing Penn-York when competition begins on Wednesday.
